Greystar Partners With Criterion Brock as One of Their Preferred Flooring Suppliers

August 04, 2011 06:12 PM Eastern Daylight Time

PORTAND, Ore.--(EON: Enhanced Online News)--Criterion Brock today announced their partnership with Greystar as a Preferred Flooring Supplier. Greystar is currently ranked as the largest apartment manager in the United States by the National Multi Housing Council.

To better serve all of their apartment communities, Greystar conducted a long selection process designed to arrive at a national specification and help narrow their Preferred Flooring Suppliers across the country. Criterion Brock joins a list of suppliers who have already proven their ability to provide excellent customer service and the best pricing available in the industry. Greystar's platform is designed to give owners the highest level of service.

"This is a perfect opportunity to match our growing footprint with one of the most respected and trusted multifamily real estate companies in the country"

As a Preferred Flooring Supplier, Criterion Brock will guarantee pricing, provide unparalleled warranty service, invoicing and payment terms, offer indemnification and liability coverage, and guarantee next-day service and same-day service under certain conditions. In support of both Greystar and CB Green environmental initiatives, all carpet and pad that is removed from apartment units will be recycled. Criterion Brock will also inspect installations, delivering uncompromising customer service.

"This is a perfect opportunity to match our growing footprint with one of the most respected and trusted multifamily real estate companies in the country," said Mike D'Adamo, President and CEO of Criterion Brock. "This program gives us the chance to create value for Greystar's residents and clients."
